DETAILED ACTION

Claims 1-18 are pending in this application. Independent claim 1 contains subject matter deemed allowable in previously allowed patents 6,997,698 and 7,144,242 by the applicant. The only outstanding rejection in this case is a double patenting rejection.

Double Patenting

1. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the “right to exclude” granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

1. Claims 1-18 are rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-27 of U.S. Patent No. 6,997,698 and claims 1-15 of U.S. Patent No. 7,144,242. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the subject matter of the claims is considered to be the same.

2. It is noted that Applicant has numerous other applications with related disclosures and claiming similar subject matter. Because of the number of related applications, a significant burden has been placed on the examiner to do a detailed analysis of the claims in each and provide a full write-up of the differences in claimed subject matter and why each of those differences would have been regarded by one of ordinary skill in the art as an obvious difference. Therefore, Applicant is requested to help alleviate this undue burden and either provide a terminal disclaimer with respect to each pending application with similar subject matter or provide reasons why none of the claims in the instant application are believed, without deceptive intent, to be an obvious variant of the application in question.

3. In the event that the examiner disagrees with Applicant's reasons as to why a particular application is not claiming an obvious variant of the claim in the instant application, the examiner will provide a detailed analysis in the next Office action of how and why the claim are believed to be obvious variants of one another.

Conclusion
